

Privacy Statement

Last Updated: 22 November 2023

The ProTECTOR Inc. TURT (Turtles Uniting Researchers and Tourists) app is hosted by Loma Linda University. This privacy statement informs you of our policies regarding the collection, use, and disclosure of personal information we receive from users of this app.

While using our app, we may ask you to provide us with certain personally identifiable information that can be used to contact or identify you. Personally identified information includes your name and e-mail address. We use this personal information only if there are questions about your turtle sightings logs. Uploaded photos will only be used for sea turtle verification and will never be shared with third party applications, but may be used in scientific presentations and publications with appropriate credit. By using this app, you agree to the collection of information in accordance with this policy.

The security of your personal information is important to us and will never be shared with any third parties. We may only use your personal information to contact you.

We reserve the right to update or change our privacy policy at any time. Your continued use of the service after we post any modifications to the privacy policy on this page will constitute your acknowledgement of such modifications and your consent to abide and be bound by the modified privacy policy.

If you have any questions about this privacy policy, please contact us at icer1989@gmail.com or sdunbar@llu.edu.
